

Proxy-to-inference audit for open building-footprint carbon screening

The figure separates what is observed, what is assumed, what is diagnosed, and what can be claimed.

Main claim: the contribution is not a verified demolition-carbon estimate; it is an auditable framework that prevents open proxy changes from being over-read.